OFFICIAL ORGAN BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

VOL II.—NO. 16.

MADISON, FLA., THURSDAY DECEMBER 25, 1902.

$1 A YEAR.

Suggestions for Christmas.

Now you know you must make presents to your family and to your friends. How would some of these answer?

A Lovely Reception Chair in Gold, in Oak and Velvet, in wicker; Beautiful pictures to adorn the wall. An enamel or oak easel for the corner. A pair of Handsome Portieres; Exquisite rockers in polished Oak or Leather in wicker and velvet. A Morris Chair. An easy lounge or couch, a Turkish rug or art square; Oriental Matting for the floor, a Handsome Sideboard. A dining Table. A set of dining chairs, a miniature stove for your little girl; in fact, we have so many suitable presents for all that it would take a whole newspaper to enumerate them, so we give a cordial invitation to all to come and make a selection, and we will put your name on the article you purchase and set it aside.

Twenty bushels of potatoes in the barn are worth more to the family than a whole acre to be planted next June.

Favorite Family Remedy.

Frequently accidents occur in the household, which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases, Ballard's Snow Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at D. G. Smith's.

Better a field of sandspurs with contentment than a woman jawing at you about the lack of wood and water in the kitchen.

The Best Prescription for Malaria.

Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

Quality is the True test of Cheapness.

The Best is Always the Cheapest.

If it's a "Garland" that's all you need to know about a stove or range.

Foley's Honey and Tar

The cackle of a Leghorn hen about 9 o'clock in the day is more to be desired than the voice of many mocking birds at sunrise.

He Found A Cure.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d street, Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years, have tried many doctors without relief, but I have found a cure in Herbine. I recommend it to all my friends, who are afflicted that way, and it is curing them, too. 50c at D. G. Smith's."

When the hawk eats your spring chicken he is a robber deserving death, but when he dines on jaybird you rise up and call him blessed.

A Cold wave.

The forecast of sudden changes in the weather serves notice that a hoarse voice and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand. E. W. Wise, Madison, Ga., writes: "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for present good health, and probably my life. It cures coughs, colds, lagrippe, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes the mucous membranes and strengthens the lungs. W. B. Davis."

Florida is a great state. It should have great state fairs and great public thoroughfares. In other words, the more good roads we have the greater will be the state.

The Pride of Heroes.

Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for burns, Scalds, Boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Moseley's drug store.

Hetty Green made a million and a half dollars the other day. It is now Russell Sage's turn to assert his innate nobility of character.

Saved At Grave's Brink.

"I know I would long ago have been in my grave," writes Mrs. S. H. Newson, of Decatur, Ala., "if it had not been for Electric Bitters. For three years I suffered untold agony from the worst forms of indigestion, waterbrash, stomach and bowel dyspepsia. But this excellent medicine did me a world of good. Since using it I can eat heartily and have gained 35 pounds." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach, liver and kidney troubles Electric Bitters are a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at Moseley's drug store.

The government has indulged in another new postage stamp. It will do as well as any other to carry the usual New Year's dun to its helpless victim.

A New Remedy.

The old friends of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be pleased to know that the manufacturers of that preparation have gotten out a new remedy called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and that it is meeting with much success in the treatment of constipation, biliousness, sick headache, impaired digestion and like disorders. These tablets are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills, then they not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and correct any disorders of the stomach and liver. For sale by all druggists.

A billion dollar congress is becoming so common that it will not be long before we have two billion show on our hands. This is a great country.

Speed the Cough and works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 10 cents.

Everybody will be glad to learn that Julian Ralph, the well-known journalist, is better. He could hardly be better known.

COUGHS AND COLDS IN CHILDREN

Recommendation of a Well Known Chicago Physician.

I use and prescribe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for almost all obstinate, constricted coughs, with direct results. I prescribe it to children of all ages. Am glad to recommend it to all in need and seeking relief from colds and coughs and bronchial affections. It is non-narcotic and safe in the hands of the most unprofessional. A universal panacea for all mankind.—Mrs. MARY R. MELENDY, M. D., Ph. D., Chicago, Ill. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

When it rains too hard to work in the field have your hired men come up and put the garsen in order, thus will you obtain a reputation for liberality and early vegetables.

A Good Cough Medicine.

[From the Gazette, Townsville, Australia.] I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. WOCKNER. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner. This remedy is sold by all druggists.

All men who do good work have ideals toward which they aim, dreams of what they hope to accomplish and all specially those who succeed most fully, fall far short of their ideas, for self-satisfaction usually halts the advance and puts an end to achievement.

Coughs, Colds and Constipation.

Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate. Sold by D. G. Smith.

That Montana outlaw who was sentenced to 130 years in the penitentiary is pretty sure to get out of serving a big part of his sentence.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Summer Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
